

Lavender has been called the “universal oil” because it has been known to work wherever there is a need. It is most commonly used as a sedative, or to create a calming, peaceful atmosphere. It has also been known to help acne, burns, nausea, stretch marks, infections, wounds, headaches, bruises, sprains, & tension.

Steam distilled from flowering top

©2004 Abundant Health

Lavender

Lavandula angustifolia, CT Linalol

Lavender

Pure Essential Oil